Unsolicited Commercial E-mail (Anti-Spam) Policy

This Anti-Spam Policy Notice governs the use of the web pages at www.just.jobs and its associated services, web pages, domains and sub-domains, which are owned and operated by Global Jobs Network LLC (“Owner”). Wherever this notice refers to “users” it means “you”, while “we” or “our” refer to Global Jobs Network and “Web Site” refers to <http://www.globaljobs.network> & its partner sites.

Definition of Spam

Spam is unsolicited email sent in bulk. Any promotion, information or solicitation that is sent to a person via e-mail without their prior consent, where there is no pre-existing relationship between the sender and the recipient, is spam.

Message Recipient Policy

Before clients can receive www.globaljobs.network messages, advertising or promotions, client must have agreed to receive such messages. Any recipient may request at any time to be removed from our list, and we will comply with that request. In addition, we will thoroughly investigate any allegations made by recipients relating to unsolicited messages.

Internet user privacy is of paramount importance to www.just.jobs and our customers. We support the protection of client and consumers’ privacy rights as a fundamental element of our business. Since personal privacy integrity is at the very core of our business, our success depends on our ability to maintain the trust of the people viewing our products. To this end, we have two overriding policies:

Policy Against Advertising Our Website Using Unsolicited Email Messages

We require that all e-mails promoting Nonexecutivedirectors.com or its products are sent only to clients who have agreed to receive such messages. We prohibit any advertising of our brand and Web site using unsolicited email messages. Not complying with this policy will cause partnership termination and/or affiliate account termination. If you feel you’ve been sent unsolicited emails promoting our brand or website and would like to register a complaint, please email our abuse department (contact@globaljobsnetwork.org). We will immediately investigate all allegations made related to unsolicited messages.

Your Email Address Is Safe with Us. You Can Unsubscribe at Any Time.

We require that each e-mail message sent out from www.globaljobs.network or its partner sites includes an easy way for subscribers to remove themselves via an unsubscribe link. If you receive a newsletter or email and decide you don’t like it, simply click the unsubscribe link at the bottom of the email. If you feel you’ve been sent unsolicited email and would like to register a complaint, please email our abuse department (contact@globaljobsnetwork.org).

Examples of Spam

Spam is unsolicited email sent in bulk. Any promotion, information or solicitation that is sent to a person via e-mail without their prior consent, where there is no pre-existing relationship between the sender and the recipient, is spam.

Any e-mail message that is sent to a recipient who had previously signed up to receive newsletters, product information or any other type of bulk email but later opted-out by indicating to the sender that they did not want to receive additional email, then that email is spam.

Any e-mail message that is sent to recipients that have had no prior association with the organization or did not agree to be e-mailed by the organization is spam.

Any e-mail message that is sent to a recipient without a way for a person to opt-out or request that future mailings not be sent to them, is spam.

Any email message that does not have a valid email address in the From Line is spam.

Any email message that contains any false or misleading information in the header, subject line or message itself is spam.

Any email message that promotes an adult web site is spam, unless the recipient has specifically requested information from that web site.

Changes to This Anti-Spam Policy

Global Jobs Network may amend this anti-spam policy at any time by publishing a new version on this website.

Thanks.
